

1. Input Images:

1. Use SIFT function to get point correspondences between image1, image2 and image2, image3
2. Now using the point correspondence solve for homography
3. Now using the homography stitch the images using blend function

Output:

Observation: As we can see the Output image is presenting whole view in a single image